

There is far too much violence on TV - every minute there is a killing or rape or mugging. It is insane to think this does not affect our children. I refuse to let my children watch the mainstream media for exactly this reason, so the spectrum is essentially denied to them. So much for equal access.